

Using xm local traffic helps me out much more than local broadcasts. Since I live in a small community, my travels to Houston are assisted by the traffic reports. It is much more helpful than using the local radio stations. Do not force me to FIND then listen to the local broadcasts for traffic reports. It is hard enough driving through the large cities without having to search for a traffic report.